

Symphony of the Night

DragonForce

Hidding in the fog
When darkness kiss the moon night
I Was in your Melody
Til the morning ComesLiving for you only
Take my head and show me
There will be more sorrow
When the morning comesFeelings of fighting
The pain much the sign of define
The fortress of my soul
No one can on rest in me
Or my current, or more?
No one fight alone.Is that depending on the wall
The discuss through the always remains
So many time remain
In the distant cry!Never again!
This is my symphony
My time is afford on the sky
That inner voice, was in front the boy
All the memories go byeDarkness in back from me
I find, my vision on the way
The stars when, will shine against some day!Stormless and sadness
At least through the current of feel
Was needed into the night
Bloodline the pathfire steel to fulfill
Any worst can ran in to the lightFollow! Look into my eye
Much to kill, unite revenge
Oh but some time remain
In the distant cry!Never again!
This is my symphony
My time is afford on the sky
That inner voice, was in front the boy
All the memories go byeDarkness in back from me
I find, my vision on the way
The stars when, will shine against some day!
