Pills

Primer 55

I think it's time to fade away
From all the shit inside my head
I go instead, to a beautiful place, you know I'll find it
I've tried so hard to stay away
Far away from all these days
That never change and with these things thatMakes me take those pills, oh yeah
The pills, oh yeah
Amputating my emotion
Make me numb so I don't care
Keep checking my vitals
Still no signs of life in hereLet the sedation take the place
Of all ambition for myself, there's nothing left
And now and then I'll hide behind it
It's in this place I try to stay
Far away, my life has changed
Everything is fading into grayMakes me take those pills, oh yeah
The pills, oh yeah
Amputating my emotion
Make me numb so I don't care
Keep checking my vitals
Still no signs of life in hereGive me room so I can breath
The walls keep closing in
I'm feeling claustrophobic, increase the dosage
So I can feel alive again
Don't wanna feel sober, don't wanna feel pain
I really don't want to feel the emptiness, the stress
And all those things thatMakes me take those pills, oh yeah
The pills, oh yeah
Amputating my emotion
Make me numb so I don't care
Keep checking my vitals
Still no signs of life in here
