First off, I just wanna thank yo momma
Everything you got, you know you got it from 'er
Got no doubt in my mind that I want her
And we ain't neva got no problems, I luv ya{Malachiae Warren}:
Baby, when you come through
You know what I wanna do
I feel some type of way when I look at you
Aw babe, aw baby
A star in the night time
And you shine like the sunrise
Girl, you know I'm tryna be that guy
For you babe, you baby {Hook-}:
When I think about the way you make me feel
Look me in my eyes so that I know it's real
You know, oh oh
I just wanna, I just wanna, I just wanna, I just wanna thank yo mama
I just wanna, I just wanna, I just wanna, I just wanna thank yo mama
For making something so fine, something so right
I just wanna, I just wanna, I just wanna, I just wanna thank yo mama What's your nationality? Somethin' them girls all wanna be
You don't even gotta wear a weave, so se-, so sexy
Love you like we grown, cause girl you got me on one
I'm tryna be the one you think about, when you layin' up in the house When I think about the way you make me feel
Look me in my eyes so that I know it's real
You know, oh oh
I just wanna, I just wanna, I just wanna, I just wanna thank yo mama
I just wanna, I just wanna, I just wanna, I just wanna thank yo mama
For making something so fine, something so right
I just wanna, I just wanna, I just wanna, I just wanna thank yo mama {TK N Cash}:
Let yo momma know I appreciate it
Cuz you know they bad and I know they hate it
And I know yo daddy don't like me
But yo momma want you to be a wiffey
It ain't no secret where you get it from (where you get it from, get it from)
Girl, I wanna hit it, hit it, like a drum
Druuum, bum bum
Aye look, I'm sorry, miss Jackson, but yo daughter look bad

I ain't tryna be manish, but she still like a stallion
I ain't lyin' what you play to
She gon' make any man go through it
And she different cuz she know she got it from you
She know that she the truth
And every time I'm with my boo, I'm always thankin' you
She in love with the cash, but I ain't talkin' money
I'm in love with that ass, I wanna thank yo momma I just wanna, I just wanna, I just wanna, I just wanna thank yo mama
I just wanna, I just wanna, I just wanna, I just wanna thank yo mama
For making something so fine, something so right
I just wanna, I just wanna, I just wanna, I just wanna thank yo mama
