Blackout

Sugarcult

I couldn't fake it
We wouldn't make it
I couldn't give enough to you
I couldn't take it
You found my replacement
I'll never wake up next to you
Yeah
You wouldn't listen anymore
No one listens anymore
You couldn't give it anymore
It's a blackout
I couldn't break it
I tried to sedate it
I'll never give it up to you
Yeah
You wouldn't listen anymore
No one listens anymore
You couldn't give it anymore

It's a blackout
These are the answers that you couldn't handle
now you're on your own
These are the answers that you couldn't handle
now you're on your own
So much time's gone by
So much time could buy
I couldn't fake it
You found my replacement
yeah
You wouldn't listen anymore
No one listens anymore
You wouldn't give it anymore
It's a blackout (I'm gonna turn your lights out)
It's a blackout (I'm gonna turn your lights out)
It's a blackout (I'm gonna turn your lights out)
It's a blackout (I'm gonna turn everything out)
