

My Heart Stood Still

Rod Stewart

I laughed at sweethearts I met in schools
All indiscreet hearts seemed romantic fools
A house in Iceland was my heart's domain
I saw your eyes now, castles rise in Spain
I took one look at you, that's all I meant to do
And then my heart stood still
My feet could step and walk, my lips could move and talk
And yet my heart stood still
Though not a single word was spoken I could tell you knew
That unfelt clasp of hands told me so well you knew
I never lived at all until the thrill of that moment when my heart stood still Though not a single word was spoken
I could tell you knew
That unfelt clasp of hands told me so well you knew
I never lived at all until the thrill of that moment when my heart stood still
All that moment when my heart stood still
My heart stood still, my heart stood still
