Open Your Eyes, You Can Fly

Lizz Wright

Never be afraid to love
Never be afraid to just be
Catch the way, the change, the doubt
Have the courage to be freeDon't clad your eyes with others lies
See only what you want to see
Duplicate this simple truth
Have the courage to be freeOpen your eyes, you can fly
Open your eyes, you can fly
You can fly, you can fly, yeahNever be afraid to love
Never be afraid to just be
You got to catch the way, the change, the doubt
And have the courage to be freeDon't clad your eyes with others lies
See only what you want to see
Just duplicate this simple truth
And have the courage to be freeOpen your eyes, you can fly
Open your eyes, you can fly
You can fly, you can flyOpen your eyes, you can fly
Open your eyes, you can fly
You can fly, yeah, you can fly, yeah, yeahNever be afraid to love
