Honey Cocaine

[Hook]
Hey boo what's up

And we gone do it all night
You smoke, I smoke, you drink, me too
Well good, let's get drunk tonight
And all my bitches bad, we gettin cash
Well we gone spend it all tonight
So boo I'll do what I want too with you
We gone have fun tonight
[Verse]
Southside clubbin', 90's night
And I met boo he was just my type
I asked him what's his name and what he like,
He answered me and said yous a baby right
I told him I'm 19 I live a gold ass life,
But I'll tell you what the 90's like
And I am what these niggas like
Just give me one night, asian and take the pipe,
So what you waitin' for, You like my outfit cause I'm from the north
Young goddess, I can buy the stores
Independent bitch you can have yours
Shit we ain't gotta cut from the club we can party and drink
But if I make a move what the party gone think,
Still it's whatever cause the party is shit
And imma show you the keys and you show me your dick,
Aye is it wrong if I bring you home
Tell all your homies we gone be alone, it's our zone
You found a gold ass bitch
2 times for a gold ass bitch come get it aye
[Hook]
Hey boo what's up
I don't do love so we can fuck
And we gone do it all night
You smoke, I smoke, you drink, me too
