

It All Goes On Without You

The Design

I got your meat

I got your bone

Come and lick a little microphone

Don't you dare tell me, "Leave it alone"

If you're choking on the wire, I'll be humming to the dial tone Gluing feathers to your arm doesn't make you a bird

The religion of your diction is a little absurd

If you twitter in my ear, I'm gonna give you my word

That the thrust of my wing will be the last thing you heard
Please

I can't take anymore

Leave

Good-bye, mon amour

The point I'm trying to get to

Is darling, it all goes on without you
Your service rendered's running up my bill

You're a holy maven of the cheapest thrill

I'm a roller coaster climbing up that hill

I may never see the sunrise, but it's sure as shit you never will Please

I can't take anymore

Leave

Good-bye, mon amour

The point I'm trying to get to

Is darling, it all goes on without you
You-oo

You-oo

It all goes on without you

You-oo

You-oo

It all goes on without you

You-oo

You-oo

It all goes on without you

You-oo

You-oo

It all goes on Come on
You-oo

You-oo

It all goes on without you

You-oo

You-oo

It all goes on without you

You-oo

You-oo
It all goes on without you
You-oo
You-oo
It all goes on without you
