

A Tormented Soul

The Sins of Thy Beloved

My own little world i hide away i feel no pain i hide away never to talk and never to walk no more This is my fate this is my choice i have ruined your life
never to talk
and never to walk no more I've played like a fool this is my life i take it all back
never to talk
and never to walk no more I vanish through the night i travel through my life i am sinking in the earth never to talk and never to walk no more in the shadows of a tormented soul there conceals a murky threshold eldritch phantasm reveals the yearning for infinitude invades My beloved tremble in fear my detest against thee who's a plagues Finally there is peace in thine soul my resurge will reveal ye fate in the misty twilight i appear invisible i conquer Solely i fade with the winter solely i reveal my secrets infinitude i conceal in thy phantasm infinitude my phantasm is of thee in my grandeur i proceed my voyage in my grandeur my resurge is of thee my resurge will sway through dimensions my resurge will reflect thine demeanour
