

She

That Dog

She is given such pain. She is faced with the evil strain

She is given no choice. She conquers and can't rejoiceI see the picture of her standing on the street

Her coat is white and her hair, black

I see the picture of her standing on the street

And she is beautifulShe has strength beyond compare. She gets past the loss of her hair

And she is beautiful

She is beautiful
