

Lay My Burdens

Disciple

There are things that I'll never understand
The road I've walked that has made me who I am [Romans 8:28]
Reminiscing with the picture on the wall again
Reminding me just how far away I've been

I'm looking to lay my burdens down
They're something I can't carry anymore [Matthew 11:28]
I'm longing to lay my body down
Beside still waters and find rest for my soul [Psalm 23:2-3]

My knees are weak and my mind is tired [Hebrews 12:12-13]
I've followed every dream of every liar
If there's a place that you've prepared for me that I belong [John 14:2-3]
Then let these dry bones arise to live and breathe your song [Ezekiel 37:5]

What once was dead has now come alive [Ephesians 2:1-5]

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com

written by BARRETT, TIMOTHY DWAYNE / NOAH, BRADLEY MICHAEL / YOUNG, KEVIN DUANE

Lyrics Â© Universal Music Publishing Group

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>