

Maury the Pawn

Thomas Dybdahl

Take the blame and let's be on our way
Fall asleep but don't forget his name
His name is Maury
He put his weakness on display Seems to me by now you should have known
Everything he did, he did it just to tell a story
He was only out on loan Sometimes people need to be deceived
Tricked around and messed around with
All for the sake of common good and glory
It's what they need you to believe But he was just a part of their grand scheme
A vehicle for sympathy for a vengeant son
And his new friend the 'Tory'
Is it really just a dream?

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>