Enough Is Enough

1997

Tear the roof off my life
And gut out my insides
Hold me closer, hold me closerTear the roof off my life
And gut out my insides
Hold me closer, hold me closerIn your arms
(I watched you hold her)
It's alright
(Oh, it's those words I should've heard)
I should've let you know
(But they're for her)In your eyes
(I watched you hold her)
I still fall
(Oh, it's those words I should've heard)
I shouldn't have let you go
(But they're for her)I can't believe
That someone's taken my place
You'll see me burning bright
As I walk awayIt doesn't matter, it's only a matter of time
Understand that at the very least
I tried to find a cure for my own infectious words
Still singing, I'll never let you go from my heart
Like you were the only oneIn your arms
(I watched you hold her)
It's alright
(Oh, it's those words I should've heard)
I should've let you know
(But they're for her)In your eyes
(I watched you hold her)
I still fall
(Oh, it's those words I should've heard)
I shouldn't have let you go
(But they're for her)I kiss the bottle
Now that it's my only love
I am the smile
I am the thing that you needed for awhileIt doesn't matter, it's only a matter of time
Understand that at the very least
I tried to find a cure for my own infectious words
Still singing, I'll never let you go from my heart
Like you were the only one

To ever get this close to my heartIn your arms
(I watched you hold her)
It's alright
(Oh, it's those words I should've heard)
I should've let you know
(But they're for her)In your eyes
(I watched you hold her)
I still fall
(Oh, it's those words I should've heard)
I shouldn't have let you go
(But they're for her)Forgive me, maybe
Forgive away
For taking up your time
And for saving everythingFind me gone some day
It's closer than you know
Than you knowSilhouettes to frame in light
Goodbye at dawn, so long, goodnight
My time is wasted feeling chased
I'm running far away to you againIn your arms
(I watched you hold her)
It's alright
(Oh, it's those words I should've heard)
I should've let you know
(But they're for her)In your eyes
(I watched you hold her)
I still fall
(Oh, it's those words I should've heard)
I shouldn't have let you go
(But they're for her)No, no, no, no, no
Those were cheating words
(No, no, no, no, no, no)
We want everything to be thrown away
(Running far away)
(No, no, no, no, no, no)
Hey, heyNo, no, no, no, no
(Running far away)
I shouldn't have let you go
(Running far away)
