

Adore You

Nikki Hassman

Are there words enough
To describe the way I feel?
Can a silly crush
Turn into something so real
In a thousand ways
In a thousand hidden places
You have touched my heart
And the feeling never changes
I'm crazy for, lonely for, I adore you
Crazy for, craving more, I adore you, I adore you
If the world were mine
I would lay it at your feet
Just to see you shine
It's the only thing I need
I'm crazy for, lonely for, I adore you
Crazy for, craving more, I adore you, I adore you
With every kiss, every touch
Oh, you have the power
Oh, to life me up, oh, and I'm
I'm crazy for, lonely for, I adore you
Crazy for, craving more, I adore you, I adore you
I'm crazy for, lonely for, I adore you
Crazy for, craving more, I adore you, I adore you
