You Are

Pearl Jam

This broken wheel is coming undone. And the road's exploding. Rolling along with you. Leading me higher. When you let me in. But you're keeping me strong. Keeping us close, so close, on down the line. Love is a tower and you're the key. Sometimes I burn like a dot on the sun with no one knowing. But you're keeping me strong. Moving along with you. You are a tower of strength to me. Again. Ooh wah, ooh wah, you are, you are. The darkening hour sees light again. I am the shoreline but you're the sea. Love is a tower of strength to me. The sea. You are.
