

Reconciled

The Reliques

I am a woman
Falling to her knees
And building a house around
All my needs
And there is no one else here
Making things like glass clear

I am a martyr for the sake of the lonely
There is a wanting father coming home
There is nothing good in me
Except with you in me
I, Iâ€™m just not good enough
To all a better of your life

I build a wall of bricks around me
Freedom is the only word thatâ€™s not free
You that threats to come out to me
So that I might just believe
I, Iâ€™m just not good enough
To all a better of your love

I, Iâ€™m just not good enough
To all a better of your love
Your love

(Instrumental)

I, Iâ€™m just not good enough
To all a better of your love (3x)
Your love
