Livin' It Up

Josh Gracin

Call it what you want, what I do, what I don't
I won't change your mind anyway
Said I'm flyin' too high, crossin' too many lines
I'll just crash and burn up in flamesI got too much to do for just one life
And baby, I can sleep when I dieI'm only breathin', only feelin' on this planet so long
So I'm livin' it up, livin' it up
I got my ticket, gonna kick it like a rollin' stone
So I'm livin' it up, livin' it up
Livin' it up, livin' it up nowStraight ahead, full speed on a one way street
I ain't stoppin', I ain't slowin' down
I wanna empty my tank, leave nothin' left in the bank
When they lay me in the groundI want a front row seat, I wanna rock all night
'Cause baby, I can sleep when I dieI'm only breathin', only feelin' on this planet so long
So I'm livin' it up, livin' it up
I got my ticket, gonna kick it like a rollin' stone
So I'm livin' it up, livin' it up
Livin' it up, livin' it up nowI wanna take it, make it every day, don't wanna waste it
Love it, touch it, squeeze it, taste it
You can't take it with you when you goI'm only breathin', only feelin' on this planet so long
So I'm livin' it up, livin' it up
I got my ticket, gonna kick it like a rollin' stone
So I'm livin' it up, livin' it upI'm only breathin', only feelin' on this planet so long
So I'm livin' it up, livin' it up
I got my ticket, gonna kick it like a rollin' stone
So I'm livin' it up, livin' it up
Livin' it up, livin' it up now
Oh, come on
