

Halo (Radio Version)

SOiL

I'm the man,I'm the king,I'm the one
That's pure inside
Everyday, every way I smell of suicide
Bitter sins how they grow within
So you tell me it ain't right
I am, all sins
And you're my reason for lifeI will stone you,stone you
Wrap my arms around you
I will stone you,stone you
My little HALOI'm the man,I'm the king,I'm the one
That's broken from giving
Everyday, every way I swear just one last try Killing me with the death to be Something that's so right
I am all sins
My hands are scarred with timeFeel through my eyesI'm the man with the rock in his hand, got the rock in my hand gonna stone you stone youMake a change, gotta rearrange Idle minds,crushing time
I am all sins
And you're the reason for life
