Journey's End

Clannad

Blue waves are rolling
Visions in my mind
Of a strange voice calling
Journey's at an end, journey's at an end
(Journey's at an end, journey's at an end)Hear the anchor sinking
Voices ringing clear
Farewell from my kindred
And friends I love so dear, and friends I love so dear
(Journey's at an end, journey's at an end)Lost streams are fading
They sweep across the vale
And with oceans of meadows
To bring me back again, to bring me back again
(Journey's at an end, journey's at an end)Long have I traveled
In storm, in the sun, in the rain
And it's homeward singing
Journey's at an end, journey's at an end
(Journey's at an end, journey's at an end)
(Journey's at an end, journey's at an end)
