

End of the Line

Absynthe Minded

I bought a socket I bought a limb
I brought some light inside this house
I told you stories you won't forget
I told you what to take and what to let

I showed you reason, I caused you pain
I showed you backwards down on the ground

We had a (?) and lots of fights
And know it's time to say goodbye

To our wandering friend
I never / devilish (?)
A little sleepy head over (?)
On happy feet the scene of the killing
The heat of the night under the black (?) sky
We'll talk again on another time come walk with me
To the end of the line
It's under your pillow it's inside your brain
The color of the blood the color of the wine

I have a feeling this just aint right
I have to fade from dark to light
Ain't gonna beg, ain't gonna scream
I'm gonna look at the shape of my dreams
I never watch, I never care
A different perception (?) there
Another person, another life
And know it's time to say goodbye

To our wandering friend
I never / devilish (?)
A little sleepy head over (?)
On happy feet the scene of the killing
The heat of the night under the black (?) sky
We'll talk again on another time come walk with me
To the end of the line
It's under your pillow it's inside your brain
The color of the blood the color of the wine

Goodbye, goodbye ...

To our wandering friend

I never / devilish (?)

A little sleepy head over (?)

On happy feet the scene of the killing

The heat of the night under the black (?) sky

We'll talk again on another time come walk with me

To the end of the line

It's under your pillow it's inside your brain

The color of the blood the color of the wine
