

Tightrope

The Oh Wells

I was born with neurosis
And ultra sensitivities
But I chose the tightrope
Coz I take the... Deadly seeds
With all their possibilities
Before I take the lifeboat

And I'm scared to do this all on my own
Scared to unplug from my headphones
Show the world I've got a backbone
Just so they'll write on my headstone
Here lies someone who exceeded
Expectations and succeeded
Letting go of all the fears and hang up's
That she thought she needed

I'll take my tightrope higher
I'll set my fear of heights on fire
I will follow My dreams
even though It feels like
I'm never gonna get them
I will follow My dreams
even though It feels like
It feels like this
