Dive In

Jennifer Knapp

Careful what you say
Careful who might hear
Someone else inside the universe
Could write it down
And you'll be hearing it for yearsDon't feel, don't fall
Just turn and face the wall
I'm like a convict
With my hands locked over my head
I'm a dead man walkingI'm so tired of standing
On the edge of myself
You know I'm longing for it
To dive in, dive inYou know it well
You're voice would push me over the edge
You know I'm longing for it
To dive in, dive in, diveI'm tired of choking in
The shallow waters I've been in
I'm ready to be baptized by water and blood
Come on push me underI'm so tired of standing
On the edge of myself
You know I'm longing for it
To dive in, dive inYou know it well
You're voice would push me over the edge
You know I'm longing for it
To dive in, dive in, diveI may be a fool to some Hero to others
But to you just a loverI'm so tired of standing
On the edge of myself
You know I'm longing for it
To dive in, dive inYou know it well
You're voice would push me over the edge
Do you know I'm longing for it?
To dive in, dive inOnly you're voice would push me over the edge, alright
Dive in, dive in
Only you're voice would push me over the edge, alright
Dive in, dive in, dive
