

Broken

DramaGods

In your eyes reflections of a man
Living lies as truthful as he can
Senses turn deaf, dumb and blind
 What you find what you hear
What you say and what you're seeingWho's gonna break the news
 Who's gonna tie the noose
Cause we're broken and we can't be fixed
 Who's gonna take the fall
 Who's gonna risk it all
Cause we're broken and we can't be fixed
Broken way beyond repairCurtain call the show it must go on
 My second act the chemistry is wrong
 Two big stars fighting for applause
 And the cause of all monologues
 A babyWhat's your secret
 And is it about me
