All My Heart

John Newman

All my heart, all my love
Can't give you enough
Can't give you enough
All my heart, all my love
Can't give you enough
Can't give you enough(See I've been pushing you for far too long, baby)
(The sounds that make this world, the world)When you get home, when you get home
You scream you don't want me no more
And I, how did you ask,how did you ask
I've been here all night long
I've had to face, I've had to face
Even if I show youAll my heart, all my love
Can't give you enough
Can't give you enough
All my heart, all my love
Can't give you enough
Can't give you enough(See I've been pushing you for far too long, baby)
(The sounds that make this world, the world)I cannot take, I cannot take, another morning waking up
When you turn, you turn and say, you turn and say
That you loved me it would be there
I've got to face, I've got to face
Even if I show youAll my heart, all my love
Can't give you enough
Can't give you enough
All my heart, all my love
Can't give you enough
Can't give you enough(See I've been pushing you for far too long, baby)
(The sounds that make this world, the world)All my heart, all my love
Can't give you enough
Can't give you enough
All my heart, all my love
Can't give you enough
Can't give you enoughAll my heart, all my love
Can't give you enough
Can't give you enough
All my heart, all my love
Can't give you enough
Can't give you enough
