

Nycny

Daryl Hall

So whadya want?
Is it deja-vu or have I been here before?
I don't know but Everything about you is still the same
Everything about you is so alive
Too much time around, you start to kick my ass
Too much time away, I lose my lease (New York love me)
So good, so good
(New York love me)
Keep my head up
(NY love me)
NYC, I see
(NY why me)
Am I NY? Try to run away
Ya know it's no use
Tongue in cheek so I can't speak
Vibrations knock my screws loose Everything about you is still the same
Everything about you is so alive
Too much time around, you start to kick my ass
Too much time away, I lose my lease (New York love me)
So good, so good
(New York love me)
Keep my head up
(NY love me)
NYC, I see
(NY why me)
Am I NY? Written in the air
Written on return
Nowhere bright as here nowhere else Written in the air
Written on return
Stones and fever dreams nothing else
NYC see ya real soon Try to run away
Ya know it's no use
Tongue in cheek so I can't speak
Vibrations knock my screws loose Well it ain't love
It ain't art, it's pressure
Pain in the heart that moves me NYC, that grooves me
NYC, you move me
NYC you lose me, NYC Everything about you is still the same
Everything about you is so alive

Too much time around, you start to kick my ass
Too much time away, I lose my lease(New York love me)
So good, so good
(New York love me)
Keep my head up
(NY love me)
NYC, I see
(NY why me)
Am I NY?
