Sew it on, face the fool
Decembers tragic drive
When time is poetry And stolen the world outside
The waiting crush my heart
(Could)
No Sew it on, face the fool
The tide breaks a wave of fear
And brave songs disappear The secret voice of dawn
This last time
Raise my eyes
No Youll taste it
Youll taste it
In time
In time
In time
In time The right words
In time
The right words
In time Sew it on, face the fool
The mirrors lie
Those arent my eyes Destroy them, raise my hand
Reflects in savage shards
A new face, soul reborn
No Youll taste it
Youll taste it
In time
In time
In time
In time The right words
In time
The right words
In time
