

Guilty by Association

Vic Chesnutt

You've been sanctified
And I've been tried guilty by association
You've been canonized and I've been fried guilty by association
All the little loonies with a salient obsession come out from the boonies
With their sharpies and their guns loaded with questions You've been canonized and I've been fried guilty by association
You've been terrorized
And I've been tried guilty by association
All the little loonies with a salient obsession come out from the boonies
With their sharpies and their guns loaded with questions
