

I Was Not to You What You Were to Me

Andi Almqvist

I drink my coffee
And watch the rain fall
I let the days crawl by

I lost my purpose
To the shadows
The night we said goodbye

I was not to you what you were to me

Rotten apples
Are falling from the trees
And I will never learn

Autumn came
When you departed
Summer crashed and burned

I was not to you what you were to me

I miss your weird eyes
Your curly hair
Your dirty sweet delights

We held each other close
At the "Avion"
Those lazy Brno-nights

But I was not to you what you were to me

I'm not a fool
I know it's over
And that's a bitter pill

Between the jaws of night
Where darkness eats the light
I'm dreaming of you still

I was not to you what you were to me
