

Dynamite

Dave Edmunds

Well, send me love in a package labeled "Dynamite,"
I wanna feel an explosion when I hold you tight.
I got a powerhouse of sexing waiting for you when You come back into your loving baby's arms again. Sailing 'cross the stars into the silvery moon.
If you want to know what happens I could be there soon. Well give me kisses that explode before my very eyes.
I know the sight of you can generate a million sighs.
All I'm set for detonation, baby don't you know,
Three two one zero, here I go! Sailing 'cross the stars into the silvery moon.
If you wanna know what happens I could be there soon. Dynamite! Well, send me love in a package labeled
"Dynamite,"
I wanna feel an explosion when I hold you tight.
Got a powerhouse of sexing waiting for you when You come back into your loving baby's arms again. Sailing 'cross the stars to the silvery moon.
If you wanna know what happens I could be there soon. Dynamite! Well give me kisses that explode before my very eyes.
I know the sight of you can generate a million sighs.
All I'm set for
