Bigger

Citizen Way

Once there was a time
I put You in a box
Told You what You are
And what You're not
When everything was fine
I put You on the shelf
Running back to You
When I need help
But no more no more
'Cuz You defied the laws of gravity
Took a near impossibility
A .01 percent certainty
And turned it into reality
Because You're
Bigger bigger
Bigger than my problems
You've already solved them
Bigger bigger
Than I could ever understand
The universe at Your command
What can stand against me
When You're bigger bigger bigger bigger
Ever since I took the dare
To take You at Your Word
Leave it all behind to seek You first
Every little scar
From walking in the dark
Every chain every blame every stain
Is no more no more
Cuz You defied the laws of gravity
Took a near impossibility
A .01 percent certainty
And turned it into reality
Because You're
Bigger bigger
Bigger than my problems
You've already solved them
Bigger bigger
Than I could ever understand

The universe at Your command
What can stand against me
When You're bigger bigger bigger bigger
Innocent you paid the price
And took my place on the cross
The darkness had won the fight
For 3 days all hope was lost
Death had the victory
But the best part of this story
Is You schooled the grave and came back to life
That ol' serpent couldn't believe his eyes
Bigger
Bigger
Bigger
Bigger than my regret and my sorrow
Bigger than all my fears of tomorrow
Bigger than anything I'm facing
I'm gonna trust in You because 'cuz You're Bigger
Bigger than my regret and my sorrow
Bigger than all my fears of tomorrow
I'm gonna trust in You because
'cuz You're Bigger
