Spellbound

Doves

those eyes they transmit all your loving echos light into dark hearts i would swear I've seen this, left beside me your eyes they hypnotize she keeps me here so spellbound her love pulls me near to stranger ground I've lost my mind there this dark magic mirror, spellbound a heart-shaped face with words as cold as stone i can't believe this is my fate she raised your head now the night, it's coming down i accept this fate i accept my love you won't be long you keep me here so spellbound your love pulls me near to sacred ground i lost my mind there

and i can't leave now leave her now (x2) she keeps me near so spellbound
her love pulls me near to stranger ground
this dark magic mirror, spellbound (x2) so spellbound (x3)
