

I'm Already Taken

Steve Wariner

My little third grade hand wrote 'I love you'
On a note of yellow paper
And sent it to the front of the row
To a little blond-haired girlThe blond-haired girl just opened it
And read it to herself
I was so embarrassed
When she turned around and said"I'm already taken
You spoke up too late
I love somebody else
So you'll just have to wait"The years flew by so quickly
And there we were in junior high
I realized that I still loved her soSo I called her up
And told her exactly how I felt
Then she said, "There's something
That you really ought to know""I'm already taken
You spoke up too late
I love somebody else
So you'll just have to wait"So wait I did and never changed my love
For that little blond-haired girl
Who's now the mother of our little blond-haired boy
Who's to our hearts so close
I hate to think how fast he's growin' upLast night I overheard them
As she tucked him into bed
He said, "Mommy, will you marry me?"
And this is what she said"I'm already taken
You spoke up too late
I love your daddy, son
So you'll just have to wait""I'm already taken
You spoke up too late
I love your daddy, son
So you'll just have to wait"
