

Narrow Mind

Rotten Sound

[Music: Mika, Rotten Sound]

[Lyrics: Jorma, Keijo] You use your traditional mind

Which can not see another kind

A selfish one-way road

That's a serious thing I have to remind All you feel is hate

You live for your rage One way system in your mind

That's the thing we don't like

Can't you see you're not alone

Your brain is still in cradle All you feel is hate

You live for your rage [lead: Juha] Is there anything we can make...

Like put there some fucking sake?

We'd like to see you sane

No fucking way some things can't changed! All you feel is hate

You live for your rage
