

Just A Little

Leigh Nash

I know I've, been gone, for a long, long, long, while I've been singing a song, when all I want, is to see you smile
About the time, I get there, I forget, why I'm goneI wonder, why, just a little, I'm always wanting something more
Life is a riddle, I wish I had the answer for Love breaks your heart, to teach you to be strong
I die, just a little, so I can live a little bit moreLike your eyes, you can have rainbows, without rays
In the morning light, I'll be holding you, again
Don't forget, our music, won't disappear, there's no endI wonder, why, just a little, I'm always wanting something more
Life is a riddle, I wish I had the answer for
Love breaks your heart, to teach you to be strong
I die, just a little, so I can live a little bit moreI will sing to you, when the road sings me to sleep
Maybe you stay with me, and I will give you songs, you can keepI wonder, why, just a little, I'm always wanting something more
Life is a riddle, I wish I had the answer for
Love breaks your heart, to teach you to be strong
I die, just a little, so I can live a little bit more
