You're Breaking

Sunset Black

I see you laughing and I see your smile
And I see you like to hide when you're in denial
You keep your cool when everyone's around
When you're alone you start to shake and break downYou're breaking
What you want
What you got
You know you're breaking
You're breaking
What you want
What you got
You know you're breakingI might be wrong but I think you see the same
That we all have guilt and we look for someone to blame
I see you laughing and I see your smile
And I see you like to hide when you're in denialYou're breaking
What you want
What you got
You know you're breaking
You're breaking
What you want
What you got
You know you're breakingDown around where all can see
I need you now don't give up on me
Down around what might have been
Don't give up now don't break again
Down around where all can see
Down aroundYou're breaking
What you want
What you got
You know you're breaking
You're breaking
What you want
What you got
You know you're breakingCaving in Giving up
You're breaking down
You're giving up
You're giving in
You're breaking down
You're giving up

You're breaking down
Down around
