Something Moving In Me

Neal McCoy

Some lives roll hard, grow weary and old
From long lonely nights, down unfriendly roads
They twist and turn and lead us astray
I know because I've rolled that way
So broken hearted then a miracle startedSomethin' movin' in me
Somethin' movin' so powerfully
I can almost hear it
Touchin' my spirit so tenderly
Your love is somethin' movin' in meI used to lean on unreliable friends
And false promises, the nights without end
I never knew how, how good it could be
To have someone like you leanin' on me
Now I rejoice in how the sound of your voice can startSomethin' movin' in me
Somethin' movin' so powerfully
I can almost hear it
Touchin' my spirit so tenderly
Your love is somethin' movin' in me
Your love is somethin' movin' in me

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/