

Morning Yearning

Ben Harper

A finger's touch upon my lips
It's a morning yearning, it's a morning yearning
Pull the curtains shut, try to keep it dark
But the sun is burning, the sun is burningThe world awakens on the run
And will soon be earning, soon be earning
With hopes of better days to come
It's a morning yearning, morning yearningMorning yearningAnother day, another chance to get it right Must I still be learning? Must I still be learning?
Baby crying kept us up all night
With her morning yearning, with her morning yearningMorning yearningLike a summer rose, I'm a victim of the fall
But I'm soon returning, soon returning
Your love's the warmest place the sun ever shines
My morning yearning, my morning yearningMorning yearning
