When Goodbye Means Forever...

I Killed the Prom Queen

Your icy breath will still warm my heart
I hate these suicide emotions that are left
As I feel your tears, I bleed for you
Please stop this, stop this crying onto meYour words are just an insult to me againAnother rumor is started
(Beautiful)
I hear your beautiful voice
(Hope as)
I will walk away crying
Beautiful voices forever will choke me downI hope that you look me in the eyes, when I cry
Blink just for a second
(Pondering)
Look into a mirror at someone that you hate
Sit back and watch, as the paint will dryCheck your vital signs
(Check your vital signs)
As these hearts won't mend
(As hearts won't mend)
As time will pass us by
You won't change as the sky burns meAnother lonely night will await meAs the sky will burn you apart
As the mirror turns you into someone that you hateIt was sixty seconds, since I met you
I'm dying and bleeding of my past
Wasting away
Wasting away from youI watched you fall
I hope that you will break
Now burn with me and let me melt away
Now burn with me and watch me melt awayAs this hope is forgotten
Hope forgotten, you're forgotten
