

The Way U R (feat. Al Gator & Antonio MC Lendon)

The Sonix

Verse 1 [Al Gator]Can I assist with somethin' you're missin'

See I ain't used to approachin' 'em with this much persistence

But you different I mean real different

I know ns say that commonly, but I swear that I'm sincere with it

Listen, this is an opportunity for you and me

Get our Queen Latifah on, tighten up this unity

Truly I lose the cool in me no foolery

You beside me is makin' me read women their eulogy

Pain get through to me. my heart had a closed sign,

So, feelin' confused its like a rapper that don't rhyme it's

Senseless, tell me what's your interests

Weeks at the Bellagio or buildin' all new friendships

Or, Benzes summer trips that's endless

Or chillin' at my momma house and knowin' where my ends is

That close knit, old school, somethin' that Anita Baker talked about

That sweet, sweet lovin', what's the business babyChorus [Antonio McLendon]I love the way you walk

These chicks got nothin' on you girl

I love the way you move

I keep it so true girl

I love the way you love

I wanna talk about the way you love

I love who you are

I love who you areVerse 2 [Al Gator]See I've been a lot of places, seen a lot of things

Did a lot of ballin' and played a lot of games

This is kinda unnatural the way you got me after you

Enjoy your company from night until the afternoon

Got me spoiled, like how's somebody gon' come after you

I'm too content from every avenue, passin' through

Braggin' to, all of my ns about your walk

Love the way you move, Love the way you love and who you are, I'm on that

Secret garden, Quincey Jones, Barry White and 'em

Your words music to my ears it's like you're writing 'em

Don't hold your fellings baby, ain't no need in fighting 'em

Need me I'll be there for you like I'm Mike and 'em

The lightning to my life of sin

Now I can let life being

Livin', givin' me ya heart is such a priceless gem

You got me smilin' feelin' silly

I can takeover the world as long as my baby ridin' with me, Love it allVerse 3 [Al Gator]See I can tell ya daddy

must of had a hand in raisin' you
Know how to respect a man, girl I'm praisin' you
Praise is due, never enquire about my past relations cos you aint faded about what they could do
Amazed baby about what you've accomplished, believe in ya conscience
Turnin' down sponsors
Them sucka ns just wanna control you that's nonsense
How to perfect beauty you the table of contents
Baby I love ya style you a sylistic
Say they ball, we step in the club and go ballistic
St even ya lil partner's tryna pay a visit
Cos they know when we get it in, st is so exquisite
Keep me advancing, you ruin all they chances
You need it I don't hesitate, I'm dopping what my plans is Cos is I'm next to you that paper aint a thang
Swear to god you finna take me out the game
I drop it gladly for you Chorus [Antonio McLendon] I love the way you walk
These chicks got nouthin' on you girl
I love the way you move
I keep it so true girl
I love the way you love
I wanna talk about the way you love
I love who you are
I love who you are
