Lost

Within Temptation

My hope is on fire, my dreams are for sale
I dance on a wire, I don't want to fail her
I walk against the stream, far from what I believe in
I run towards the end, trying not to give in
She's lost in the darkness, fading away
I'm still around here screaming her name
She's haunting my dream world, trying to survive
My heart is frozen, I'm losing my mind
Help me, I'm buried alive, buried alive
I'm burning the bridges and there's no return
I'm trying to reach her, I feel that she yearns
I walk against the stream, far from what I believe in
I run towards the end, trying not to give in
She's lost in the darkness, fading away
I'm still around here screaming her name
She's haunting my dream world, trying to survive
My heart is frozen, I'm losing my mind
Help me, I'm buried alive, buried alive
I tried to revive what's already drowned
They think I'm a fool, can't realize
Hope plays a wicked game with the mind
'Cause I thought that love would bind
I cannot revive what's already drowned
She won't come around
She's lost in the darkness, fading away
I'm still around here screaming her name
She's haunting my dream world, trying to survive
My heart is frozen, I'm losing my mind
Help me, I'm buried alive, buried alive
