Polyamorous

Lookbook

Let's goThe day has come to an end
The sun is over my head
My polyamorous friend
He got me in a mess of trouble againSo just when you think that you're all right
I'm crawlin' out from the inside
I never hurt anyone, I never listen at allThey've come to get me again
The cloud is over my head
My polyamorous friend
He got me in a mess of trouble againSo just when you think that you're all right
I'm crawlin' out from the inside
I never hurt anyone, I never listen at allJust stay away from the white light
I'd say your worst side's your best side
I never hurt anyone, I never listen at allWell, how do you know?
Well, how do you know?
Well, how do you know?
Well, how do you know?Just when you think that you're all right
I'm crawlin' out from the inside
I never hurt anyone, I never listen at allJust stay away from the white light
I'd say your worst side's your best side
I never hurt anyone, I never listen at allLet's go
