

Blind Faith (sweet Crystal)

Warrant

Darlin' I know you're sleepin'
But there's something that I've just got to say Wonder if you'll hear me while you're dreamin'
You make a lifetime out of every day
Thanks to you now I know
All my dreams can come true Blind faith in you oh yeah
I got blind faith in you oh yeah Your eyes keep things well hidden
Just a hint of what you're holding inside
And the first day that I met you
I consider the first day of my life
Thanks to you now I know
All my dreams can come true Blind faith in you I've got blind faith in you
And I'm not sure I deserve a woman so true
But I love that you think I do With you and faith beside me I'm feelin' stronger every day Blind faith in you I got blind faith in you
It's true blind faith in you I got blind faith in you and I'm not sure I deserve a woman so true but I love that you think I do
