

Lovin' So Hard

Becky G

You're the one I wanna talk about, talk about
Had a few but you knock them out, knock 'em out
Might just let you meet my mama now, mama now
Might just let you lock it, lock it down
Cuz I've been loving how you are with me, are with me
Ain't no fussing ain't no arguing, arguing
Every plane needs a pilot, pilot
Tell me baby who you're flying with Like ooh ah, wanna, wanna be around you
Got me breaking, breaking all of my rules, oh
It's all the little things that you do
That got me like ooh When I wake up
You're the first thing that comes to mind
Wanna see you like all the time
Yeah we be loving so hard
When I wake up
You're the first thing that comes to mind
Wanna see you like all the time
Yeah we be loving so hard We be loving
We be loving so hard
We be loving
We be loving so hard
Ain't nobody love him like I love him
Ain't nobody steal him
Damn we be loving hard We be loving
We be loving so hard
We be loving
We be loving so hard
I'm missing when I'm holding him
Missing when I'm kissing him
Damn we be loving hard Tryna find, find the words to say, words to say
To describe what you mean me, mean me
Side by side like the yin and yang, yin and yang
Like the stair up to my little wing
And it be hard, it'd hard at times, hard at times
But in the dark boy, you are my light, are my light
The boom boom to my dynamite, dynamite
Baby, you, you are my ride or die Like ooh ah, wanna, wanna be around you
Got me breaking, breaking all of my rules, oh
It's all the little things that you do

That got me like ooh When I wake up
You're the first thing that comes to mind
Wanna see you like all the time
Yeah we be loving so hard
When I wake up
You're the first thing that comes to mind
Wanna see you like all the time
Yeah we be loving so hard We be loving
We be loving so hard
We be loving
We be loving so hard
Ain't nobody love him like I love him
Ain't nobody's steal him
Damn we be loving hard We be loving
We be loving so hard, so hard
We be loving
We be loving so hard, so hard
I'm missing when I'm holding him
Missing when I'm kissing him
Damn we be loving hard We be loving
We be loving so hard
We be loving
We be loving so hard
Ain't nobody love him like I love him
Ain't nobody's steal him
Damn we be loving hard We be loving
We be loving so hard
We be loving
We be loving so hard
I'm missing when I'm holding him
Missing when I'm kissing him
Damn we be loving hard
