Slave To Love

Chillihounds

You're the hunter, I'm the game
Since we've met, I'm not the same
The hunger in you can't be satisfiedYou had a secret strategy
To take control and capture me
I lost my will and now I'm paralyzedBeen made a slave to love, that's what I'll always be
A victim of your touch, you stole my soul
And now I'm just a slave to love, yeahIt took one night at your hotel
To fall from grace into your spell
I can't believe you brought me to my kneesYou kiss me once and love me twice
I'm on your mental sacrifice
Your target's touch was hot and aim to pleaseBeen made a slave to love, that's what I'll always be
A victim of your touch, you stole my soul
And now I'm just a slave to loveOh, I'm being used
Been held hostage for so long
Is this a one way love affair, really wrongBeen made a slave to love, that's what I'll always be
A victim of your touch, you stole my soul
And now I'm just a slave to love, just a slave to loveJust a slave to love, ooh
A victim of your touch
