A Long Goodbye

Erasure

In these days of mine for keeps
I'm trying to hold on
Suddenly you're all out of reach
And everything goes wrong
What we say and what we do
Are entirely different things
Meaningless straight through the roof
It's not how it should be
Easy like a bird
I ride the breeze
My mind is falling
You're so ordinary
You're my sanctuary in the morning, darling
New sensation, love vibration
Heart to heart and a long goodbye
You go your way, I'll go my way
Life is truer than fiction
In this crazy land of milk and honey
Life is just an illusion
I just don't know what to believe in
If the truth be known
Suffering from soul fatigue
Weathering the storm
What we say and what we do
Are entirely different things
Whispered voices fill the room
It's not how it should be
Swaying like a tree
I feel the sky
Somebody calling
You're so ordinary
Be my sanctuary in the morning, darling
New sensation, love vibration
Heart to heart and a dumb goodbye
Then you go your way, I'll go my way
Life is truer than fiction
In this crazy mixed up world of honey
Life is just an illusion, darling
Easy like a bird

I ride the breeze
My mind is falling
You're so ordinary
Be my sanctuary in the morning, darling
New sensation, love vibration
Heart to heart and a long goodbye
Then you go your way, I'll go my way
Life is truer than fiction
In this crazy mixed up world of honey
Life is just an illusion
You're so ordinary, sanctuary
Be my one in the morning, darling
New sensation, love vibration
Heart to heart and a dumb goodbye
You go your way, I'll go my way
Life is truer than fiction
In this crazy mixed up world of honey
Life is just an illusion
You're so ordinary, sanctuary
Be my light in the morning, darling
New sensation, love vibration
Heart to heart and a long goodbye
You go your way, I'll go my way
Life is truer than fiction
In this crazy mixed up world of honey
Life is just an illusion, darling
