Never Been Funked

Extreme

Never been funked
I ain't trying to make no political statement
I ain't trying to tell you the news of the world
I ain't one to give intellectual realness
I just want you to want me the way that I do
Don't it make you feel good, make you feel good?
Don't it make you feel good?
(chorus)

You ain't never been funked like this before
Never been funked, never been funked
You ain't never been funked like this before
I don't keep in touch with economical worries
My interest don't lie in that same old story
Communicating was never my problem
I never have to talk to get through to you
Talk,talk
Do you really want to funk with me?
Do you really want to funk with me?
