What A Beautiful Concept

Shane Yellowbird

If I had a dollar for every time
I tried to change for a girl of mine.
Well Id be a millionaireSquare peg, round hole
Sometimes they fit, most times they dont
And it just about killed me every time I swear.Then theres you, youre the first girl I ever met that said
Boy, dont you dare change one thing about yourself
You know, honey itd be alright with me
If youre the last girl I ever held
Cause you loved me just for myself
What a beautiful concept
What a beautiful life, what a beautiful love, what a beautiful concept.
What a beautiful life, what a beautiful love.Debbie didnt like to ride in a pickup truck set up so high
Must have been those fancy dresses that she wore
And Cindy couldnt stand my dog
At the foot of the bed all night long
Constantly complained how bad he snoredThen theres you, youre the first girl I ever met that said
Boy, dont you dare change one thing about yourself
You know, honey itd be alright with me
If youre the last girl I ever held
Cause you loved me just for myself
What a beautiful concept
What a beautiful life, what a beautiful love, what a beautiful concept.
What a beautiful life, what a beautiful love.Im a guy, youre a girl.
Ive got my things, you got your world.
You go to sleep in my arms at night,
When I wake up in the morning Im holding you tight.
What a beautiful concept. OhhhThen theres you, youre the first girl I ever met that said
Boy, dont you dare change one thing about yourself
You know, honey itd be alright with me
If youre the last girl I ever held
Cause you love me just for myself
What a beautiful
What a beautiful concept
What a beautiful life, what a beautiful love, what a beautiful concept
What a beautiful life, what a beautiful love, what a beautiful concept
