I'm A Little Rocket Ship

Cracker

I'm a little rocket ship
I'll take you on a little trip
We'll leave this planet far behindI'm a little tired of it,
And you're a little weary
I can tell, yeah yeahWell, I'm a little rocket ship
And you are Queen Andromeda
Of all the stars, those with names
And those in clusters
You are unaccountedly
Infinite, so can't you see that
I'm a little rocket shipI'm a little rocket ship
I'll take you on a little trip
And leave this planet far behindDo you suppose that they've been here?
I don't know, but I've been there
Do you wanna come along?I'm a little rocket ship
And you are crowned magnificent
Of all the stars, those with names
And those in dingy drag bars
They plead with you not to go
To Pleiades or Scorpio
And I'm a little rocket ship
