Lego

The Slot

Mum said no to Disneyland
And dad loves the church
Hallelujah

And the boys chew lego
So now we cant build castles or robots
Cause the pieces wont fit together

Look left and look right, crossing roads whilst holding hands
And we'll hold on, and we'll hold on

Only one where once stood four
And closest to the kitchen floor
Family favorite

And the day we learnt
That screaming are we there yet
Doesn't get you there any faster

Cross the roads and say goodbye
Cross the road there wasn't a dry eye
You cross the road and say goodbye
Wasn't a dry eye, cross the road wasn't
A dry eye, wasn't a dry eye
