

Lucky Star

Elliot Minor

I heard you fall, I thought of all the years we spent,
They seem so far away now, a broken heart,
Left undone, tied to imagination, letting go,
It seems so hard, lighting up and burning out,
My lucky star...So I might try, to bring back what we had back then,
Cause time is moving quickly now, still out of reach,
Giving in I start to fall to pieces, letting go,
My lucky star...My lucky star...
My lucky star (keeps on burning out)
My lucky star (keeps on burning out)And when, time tells me that we're moving on,
Soon we'll fall to pieces, soon we'll fall to pieces,
'Til then we'll move too far, gazing at that lucky star,
My lucky star...My lucky star...
My lucky star (keeps on burning out)
My lucky star (keeps on burning out)
Tonight.
